is Dedicated to:

The Giles Family

Animal agriculture, range management, 4-H and FFA youth activities, research and extension programs, urban folks, legislators, international visitors and certainly our mohair Angora goat industry have greatly benefited from the hard work and passion of the Giles family from Comfort, Texas.

Robin's grandfather, an architect who practiced in San Antonio, arrived in the USA from England in the 1860's. He began purchasing land in 1885 and named it the Hillingdon Ranch. Mr. Giles was one of the first to import Angus cattle to our region. He began exhibiting at San Antonio in 1904. As most of us know their ranch is a real business oriented working ranch. Another observation that stands out is that it is very unusual for a family to develop reputation herds of 3 species - commercial Angora goats, fine wool sheep and Black Angus cattle with economic traits that other producers want to purchase for their herds.

Robin and Carol are quick to thank our extension and research teams who have given assistance and encouragement over the many years. Some of which are: 1) wool & mohair testing at TAMU San Angelo; 2) rib eye measurements in yearling ewes and rams; 3) fecal exams for parasite resistance; 4) beginning to collect fecal samples for juniper eating Angora goats and; 5) continuing to participate in the pasture Angora billy goat test at Sonora. The Hillingdon Ranch is an approved research facility for the USDA. They also provide cattle and sheep to the Noble Foundation in Oklahoma for grazing and management studies.

It all takes extra time and then ACTION to utilize the data. Robin and Grant have mentioned that predator control can take up to 25% of their own time and skills. They have started with guard dogs also. Have you ever driven up to their ranch and happened to see Carol backing up the trailer to unload her saddle horse and 2 bulls? And then load up the horse again to go get some more. Somehow Carol finds the time to be very active on a District and State level with the Texas Farm Bureau. Their home has been open many years for their family, friends, 4-H er's, ranch tours and foreign producers. Misty stays busy with Wade and West, bookwork and a regular newsletter to the cousins who are determined to help keep the ranch and heritage intact. Grant will not let Robin and Carol slow down. Grant has been a leader in the Young Ranchers Group (more can join) which was organized by Dr. Redden. Older sisters and brother of Grant's come back to the ranch at times to visit and help – Kim, Keely, Qwen and Kip. Qwen lives in PA now, but her oldest daughter Elana is a student at Angelo State. Kip whom we remember as an outstanding 4-H member with Justin Steiler, is now an attorney for San Antonio City Public Water Service. Some of us old-timers have fond memories of Robin's dad and mother.

But wait there is More to the Truth! Some of the most inspiring chapters include: the utilization and management of the land – especially Angora goats being used to help control cedar; for over 35 years Robin has coached 4-H er's in mohair, wool, livestock and range plants. He is so proud of Robert Haile and others in other counties who are coaches also. Entrepreneurship – marketing lamb meat in San Antonio with his cousin Dottie; working with others to make and sell wool and mohair products. Working with James Stott's family and processors to provide a special mohair, wool sock; judging livestock shows; developing a detailed weaned-calf program; developing the finest micron ewes that raise more lambs; famous for sorting mohair, but Robin no longer personally shears his own sheep and goats, he serves on numerous committees including the local school board, the Texas Predator Board and the Mohair Council.

Thanks to the Giles Family for being true Ambassadors for All of us in Agriculture.

REFERENCE SIREs

A.B. Hobson & Sons Martysford Stud

76 (1991) - This buck was sired by K131, the twin to the Martysford buck that sold for 110,000 Rand, a world record price. He combined the size, muscle, thickness, and correctness of a superior meat goat with a typical soft South African mohair fleece.

422 (1991) - This buck was Mike Hobson's selection for the partnership. His sire was an outstanding producer for the Hobsons. Phenotypically this buck was well balanced but not flashy. However, he was a "blue blood" stud, he consistently produced quality kids, both straight South African and "cross".

04 (1993) - In 1994 Mike Hobson, Fred Speck, and Hayden Haby returned to South Africa and selected this buck for the second importation. His conformation was near perfect. His offspring have fine fleeces.

80 (1993) - This buck was also selected by Hobson, Speck, and Haby for the second importation. His sire was a Thorn Park buck purchased at the dispersal sale by A.B. Hobson and Brett Wienand. Haby really liked this big, tall long bodied buck.

Ross Ranch Comments

Our kidding starts about the third week of March thru early May. Most of us in the registered goat business make notes about our individual animals. Listed below are some of the codes that we use in our records. For those who want this info, some are reflected on our individual lots in this catalog. We "bag" out all of our does each year (even the commercial ones) since the udder teat structure plays a very important role in % kid crop raised in the pasture. Likewise, we place a strong emphasis on scrotal size, evenness & skin/mohair cover for fertility. Staple length is measured on the side, rump & britch.

1= excellent      2= good      3= average      4= poor

The dam's udder structure is the 1 criteria for our selection and culling program with our registered, individually ID commercial goats and #1 multi-sire commercial Livability flocks. We do not use bucks from mothers that have those long wedge shaped, balloon, or blunt tips. The nanny may be 4 to 5 years old before her true genetic udder info is known. Raising an alert kid every year with less effort is our goal. Purchased bucks are bred to test nannies before using extensively. Parasite resistance as well as the quality of mohair and necessary body of width, length and depth and hooves is evaluated at the same extended period of time with mothering ability and low abortion rates on limited feed.
